BRIGHT Run 2018 - September 8, 2018.

November 29 2017

Have a BRIGHT and Merry Holiday Season

Well, BRIGHT folks, December is here already. It's a busy month for all of us, full of food, family and giving and receiving.

Try to pace yourself through the holiday season, saving some time here and there to contemplate the special moments in the midst of the rush.

One thing to remember is BRIGHT Run 2018. It may not be your top priority for the month of December, but don't let it disappear.

For one thing, we have an early registration deal you won't want to miss. Get $10 off if you register by Jan. 31.

You may want to include the BRIGHT Run on your wish list. A donation to BRIGHT Run 2018 is a wonderful gift from family members or friends.

We're also super excited that the BRIGHT Run 2018 will be part of unique fundraising endeavour called the 25 Days of Charity! Charity! Charity! Campaign. Find out all about it – and how you can participate – in this month's eNewsletter.

Discover how some BRIGHT teams have the jump on fundraising already and take a look at a few suggestions for holiday season fundraisers for your team.

As well, read about how the Healthy Reflections Endowment Fund helps breast cancer patients who aren't able to afford a couple of important programs.

The folks behind the BRIGHT Run's fantastic silent auction would also love you to remember them during this holiday season. If you receive something that goes straight to your re-gifting box, think about its silent auction potential. Contact silent auction coordinator Lee Prokaska at lprokaska@outlook.com.

We're giving the doc in the pink tights a break this month; Dr. Mark Levine returns in January.

And we'll see you again too, BRIGHT and early in 2018!

Choir! Choir! Choir!

An amazing singing group from Toronto has included BRIGHT Run 2018 in its unique and super fun fundraising campaign.

Thanks to photographer Rick Harris, a longtime BRIGHT Run volunteer, BRIGHT Run 2018 is among the charities that will benefit from the Choir! Choir! Choir! Foundation's second annual 25 Days of Charity! Charity! Charity! Campaign starting Dec 1.

Last year, the fundraising campaign raised $50,000, which was split evenly among 25 charities.

We're thrilled to be included in this year's campaign, not only because of the donation, but also because of the group's social media campaign, which raises awareness of the charities that benefit from the campaign.

Come see them with us!

The group has a gig in St. Catharines Dec. 1 and a bunch of BRIGHT Run folks have already got their tickets. Click here to buy your tickets and join us.

On Dec. 16, Choir! Choir! Choir! will hold a fundraising singing event at the Phoenix Concert Theatre on Sherbourne Street in Toronto, with all proceeds going to the campaign. Tickets to that event may be purchased here.

Watch Facebook for more info about 25 Days of Charity! Charity! Charity! and the BRIGHT Run.

BRIGHT Needs YOU

As you know, the BRIGHT Run depends entirely on volunteers to get everything done – from staffing raffle tables, to promoting BRIGHT in the community, to preparing the site for event day and helping participants enjoy that day.

As we head toward BRIGHT Run 2018, we have some specific volunteer positions we want to fill. That's where you come in.

Take a look at our needs and tell us where you can help. Contact Nancy McMillan at mancy@brightrun.ca for more information about these opportunities and to let us know you're interested.

Volunteer vacancies:

- 1)Event day planning team
- 2)Community Connectors to promote BRIGHT Run partnerships with targeted businesses in their community
- 3) Volunteer coordinator for our hospital and cancer centre sales teams
- 4)Fundraising team members to oversee fundraising projects operated by the BRIGHT RUN organizing committee.

Come out and help us make BRIGHT Run 2018 the best BRIGHT ever!

Did You Know?

There is funding available for breast cancer patients who don't have the financial means to access two important services – the Assistive Devices Program (ADP) and CanWell.

The funding is available through the Juravinski Hospital and Cancer Centre Foundation's Healthy Reflections Endowment Fund, established by a donor. The donor, a breast cancer survivor, is enthusiastic about giving back to the centre that helped her.

Patients with lymphedema, for example, require specialized treatment that can be expensive. Some patients don't have benefits that might cover the cost of such treatments.

There is funding support through the Assistive Devices Program, but there's a 25 per cent gap to cover the costs of consultations, follow-up visits and compression garments. The Healthy Reflections Endowment Fund can cover that gap.

Toys and Books and Fundraising oh my!

Congratulations to captain Diana Beckley and her BRIGHT team Beckley's Family and Friends on a terrific craft sale Nov. 21 in the JCC lobby.

Rockers 4 Knockers at Tracie's

Rockers 4 Knockers and team captain Carmela Oliverio also got a great head start on BRIGHT Run 2018 fundraising on Nov. 12 with an evening of live music at Tracie's Place on Upper James Street.

Tips of the Month

It's a great time of year to get a head start on fundraising for BRIGHT Run 2018. With folks already in the giving mood, here are a few things you can try:

- 1) Ask friends and relatives to make a BRIGHT donation in lieu of giving you another pair of socks or bottle of shower gel. Take advantage of the early bird registration deal, then direct folks to www.brightrun.ca to make their donations.
- 2) Have a bottle drive among family, friends and neighbours. Ask them to save their empties for you and turn them in for cash for the BRIGHT Run.
- 3) Enlist friends and workmates to bake some holiday goodies, then have a bake sale at your workplace or home.
- 4) Raffle off a basket of Christmas goodies.
